Frank Bellino Named Executive Chef at Cantigny

Wheaton, Ill., June 8, 2017 — Culinary veteran Frank Bellino has been named Executive Chef at Cantigny Park and Cantigny Golf. The promotion was announced by Northbrook, Ill.-based KemperSports, which oversees Cantigny's golf and foodservice operations.

Bellino joined Cantigny 17 years ago, serving most recently as Executive Sous Chef.

"Frank is passionate about the culinary arts and his talent is enjoyed every day by our customers," said Terry Hanley, Cantigny Golf general manager. "From individual meals to banquets with more than 200 guests, his commitment to excellence never waivers."

Cantigny's food and beverage operations include Le Jardin and Bertie's Café at Cantigny Park, and the Red Oak Room and Fareways Grill at Cantigny Golf.

Bellino, who will oversee a culinary and kitchen staff of 35, considers every day a new adventure, filled with both challenges and opportunities. He appreciates the freedom to try new things, applying creativity and new technology to all parts of the menu.

"I get the most joy from experimenting with new and different flavor combinations and menu compositions," Bellino said. "Here at Cantigny we allow the culinary staff to get creative and use their talent. There are no great chefs without a great team so I'm in the right place."

A Chicago native, Bellino now lives in Aurora with his wife, Diane.
