
January/February 2013 Events at Cantigny Park

The following activities will take place at Cantigny Park, 1s151 Winfield Road in Wheaton. Additional details are online at Cantigny.org or call 630.668.5161.

January

Sunday, Jan. 27

Cantigny Bridal Show

Visitors Center, 1 to 4 pm

Brides and grooms are invited to gather ideas and plan their special day at this annual showcase. Guests will enjoy wine and champagne while sampling delicious foods created by Cantigny's talented culinary team. See elegant table and place-setting options, too. Vendors offering essential wedding products and services will be on site. Cost is $25 per person, parking included. Advance registration is requested by Jan. 18 at 630.260.8260 or jchase@cantigny.org.

February

Saturday, Feb.16

Open House

First Division Museum, 10 am to 5 pm

Guests can go "behind the scenes" for an all-new experience at the military museum, plus rare artifacts seldom if ever displayed will be available for viewing. This family-friendly event will also feature guided tours and hands-on educational activities for all ages. Admission is free with paid parking ($5 per car).

Sunday, Feb. 17

McCormick Museum Concert Series

Robert R. McCormick Museum, 3 pm

Rabbit Ears, a flute and guitar ensemble, will perform light classical music of Bach, Beethoven and Handel as well as favorites by Cole Porter, George Gershwin and Irving Berlin. Tickets for this concert inside historic Freedom Hall are free but distribution is by lottery due to limited space. To be eligible for two tickets, call 630.260.8162 or email register@cantigny.org by Feb. 8. If emailing, be sure to include phone number. Ticket recipients will be contacted by Feb. 13. Parking is $5 per car.
