CANTIGNY PARK ANNOUNCES PHOTO CONTEST WINNERS

Top three images determined by public voting throughout 2019

Wheaton, Ill., December 16, 2019 — Cantigny Park visitors voted, and the results are in! The top three prize winners of the 2018 Cantigny in Focus amateur photo contest are:

- First Place: Shelby Lynn Germain, Coal City, for “At Attention,” a contemplative image of her sister, U.S. National Guard Specialist Ashley Germain, on the steps of the Robert R. McCormick House. The perspective is from behind the uniformed soldier as she looks over the mansion’s east lawn.
- Second Place: Chuck Guedelhoefer, Naperville, for “Get Away,” his colorful photo of a ruby-throated hummingbird hovering over a zinnia bloom that a honeybee also is considering.
- Third Place: Bill Wang, Naperville, for “Tiger Tank in Snow,” a striking winter image captured outside Cantigny Park’s First Division Museum.

The winning shots were among 20 finalists chosen a year ago by a judging panel and displayed at the park throughout 2019. Visitors were encouraged to vote for their favorites. The top three receive a Cantigny gift card ($100, $75 or $50). Each of the 20 finalists received a Cantigny Park annual membership.

Cantigny in Focus, an annual event for amateur photographers, began in 2006. Submitted images must be from the grounds of Cantigny Park or Cantigny Golf in Wheaton, the 500-acre former estate of Robert R. McCormick.

Entries from the 2019 edition of Cantigny in Focus will go on display at the park in February. The top three prize winners will again be determined by the public, with voting conducted throughout 2020.
