FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“MURDER IN THE MANSION” RETURNS TO CANTIGNY FOR HALLOWEEN!

Interactive theater event includes dinner and drinks in the historic McCormick Museum

Wheaton, IL, September 18, 2014 — The Robert R. McCormick Museum at Cantigny Park will host its fourth annual dinner theater event on Friday, October 31, from 6:30 to 9:30 pm. The murder-mystery format invites participants to solve the case by discovering clues at the crime scene and interrogating fellow guests.

“Murder in the Mansion” includes cocktails, dinner and dessert in the former home of Robert R. McCormick. Tickets are on sale now at $100 each with advance registration required. Cantigny Park members receive a $10 discount.

The theme for the evening is “Na$hville Night$.” Saying “No” to the university that Vander built has cost Fannie Mae Bond millions of dollars . . . and her life! Channel 6 News investigates country music, professional golf, higher education and thoroughbred huntin’ dogs to find out who is Dead on the Money.

Dinner guests are encouraged to dress the part or wear costume pieces supplied by the museum.

Cocktails will be served in Freedom Hall, the home’s library complete with a hidden Art Deco bar. A sumptuous meal prepared by Cantigny’s award-winning culinary team will follow in the historic Gold Theatre, where the McCormick family enjoyed watching movies and hosting dinner parties.

The theater portion of the evening is orchestrated by Get Away With Murder, Inc., an Akron, Ohio-based company of mystery/comedy improv actors who expertly assist in solving the case. They are excited to bring their “traveling murder mystery party” to the McCormick Museum for the fourth straight year!

Tickets for “Murder in the Mansion” may be purchased online at Cantigny.org. Deadline for registration is October 24. Participation is limited to 56 to ensure the comfort and safety of guests. For questions, e-mail register@cantigny.org or call 630.260.8162.
